Arca Continental recognized for its Commitment to Sustainability

- Arca Continental was included in the 2019-2020 Dow Jones Sustainability Index for Latin America, which recognizes companies with the top international scores in environmental, social and governance management
- In addition, the company remained part of the FTSE4Good Index of the London Stock Exchange for the 4th consecutive year

Monterrey, Mexico, September 18, 2019- Arca Continental, one of the largest Coca-Cola bottlers in the world, continues to consolidate its performance and impact on corporate sustainability, reaching the highest international standards. Therefore, the company was included in the 2019-2020 Dow Jones Sustainability Index (DJSI) for Latin America (MILA), joining other international companies with the best results in environmental, social and corporate governance management.

The DJSI, in conjunction with RobecoSAM, evaluates companies from around the world to measure their environmental, social and corporate governance performance. They are pioneers in this area and in the global standards to measure and drive corporate sustainability practices. The MILA Pacific Alliance index recognizes companies listed on the stock exchanges in Mexico, Colombia, Peru and Chile who have the highest sustainability assessment rating.

“Our inclusion in the Dow Jones Sustainability Index is recognition of the efforts of everyone at Arca Continental, from the Board of Directors to each team member,” said Arturo Gutiérrez
