AC Receives International Recognition for Excellence

- Through its La Favorita plant, Arca Continental received an honorable mention as part of the Ibero-American Quality Award for excellence and process innovation.

Monterrey, Mexico, October 20, 2020.- Arca Continental, one of the top Coca-Cola bottlers in the world, received, through its La Favorita plant, an Honorable Mention from the Ibero-American Quality Award that recognizes organizations for excellence in quality and innovation in their processes.

The award is based on the Ibero-American Excellence Management Model and, in order for an Ibero-American company to be able to participate, it needs to have obtained a prior high recognition for quality in its country of origin. Such is the case for Arca Continental and its La Favorita plant, located in the state of Jalisco, which this year was granted the 2020 National Quality Award in Mexico.

The award will be delivered during the 17th Ibero-American Summit for Heads of State and Government to be celebrated in Andorra during the second quarter of 2021.

This is the second consecutive year that Arca Continental has been recognized by the organization. In 2019, PetStar, the largest food grade PET recycling facility in the world—which
